Tellersshotofpatron

January 6, 2018 Sorrel Filly

NOTES: Tellersshotofpatron "Patron" was an embryo transfer due to the dam having a double ovulation producing two embryos. We took advantage and placed the embryos in receipt mares and produced 2 fillies for 2018. Patron's sibling will be making her race track debut in 2020. After careful consideration we decided that Tellersshotofpatron had all the looks and demeanor to make an outstanding barrel prospect. She has been started on all of the necessary groundwork and has excelled in a manner that we love seeing. She is quick footed, willing, athletic and has that big hip with all the forward motion you need in a great barrel horse. She is a super sweet mare that loves attention and thrives for a job. Katie Dash produced a 2016 filly that has been off the race track since July. We gave her 60 days off before starting her on the barrel pattern and she has taken to it like a true professional. Give this filly a shot you won't go wrong.

Astreakflinginperks

January 30, 2018 Red Roan Colt

NOTES: Astreakflinginperks is a son of A STREAK OF FLING. I cannot say enough good things about this big, stout, kind, sweet, beautiful stallion with a good mind. Except I can never get the best picture of him. He has all the looks and conformation everyone wants. We started his groundwork and he accepts everything in stride. He is a quick mover, long stride and is always paying attention waiting on the next directional move being requested. This colt wants to learn and get along. Lance Graves had trained his Dam with high hopes of running her in the Futurities and Derbys because he saw her huge potential. Her career got cut short due to injuries. This colt is the real deal.
